CMC Adventure reserves the right to alter your arranged programme should this prove to be necessary due to conditions outside of our control i.e. inclement weather conditions.

It is the responsibility of participants to ensure that they are sufficiently fit, so that the course will not lead to excessive strain. It must be understood that the rules relating to safety must be rigidly adhered to. The Trustees for CMC Adventure can accept no responsibility for loss, damage or personal injury over and above their legal liability.

The Centre has its own mandatory insurance for third parties - you are advised to take out personal insurance against accident, injury, loss of possessions and cancellation - details of which can be obtained from the Centre Administrator.

CMC Adventure reserves the right to use photographic images of activity participants solely for promotional material. Please contact the Centre if this is unacceptable.

During time outside of the day's programmed activities, groups leaders are fully responsible for their group members especially evenings. Duty members of staff are available to assist if required.
